

First Belgian Brewster Model 339B

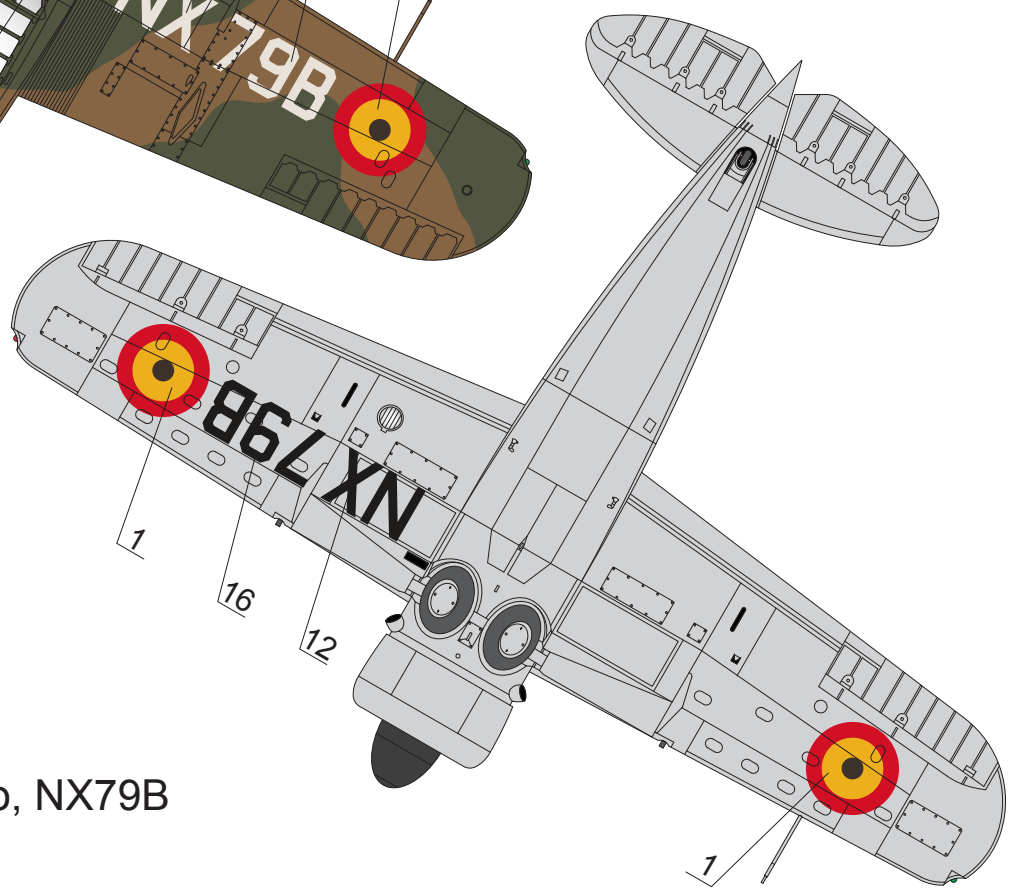

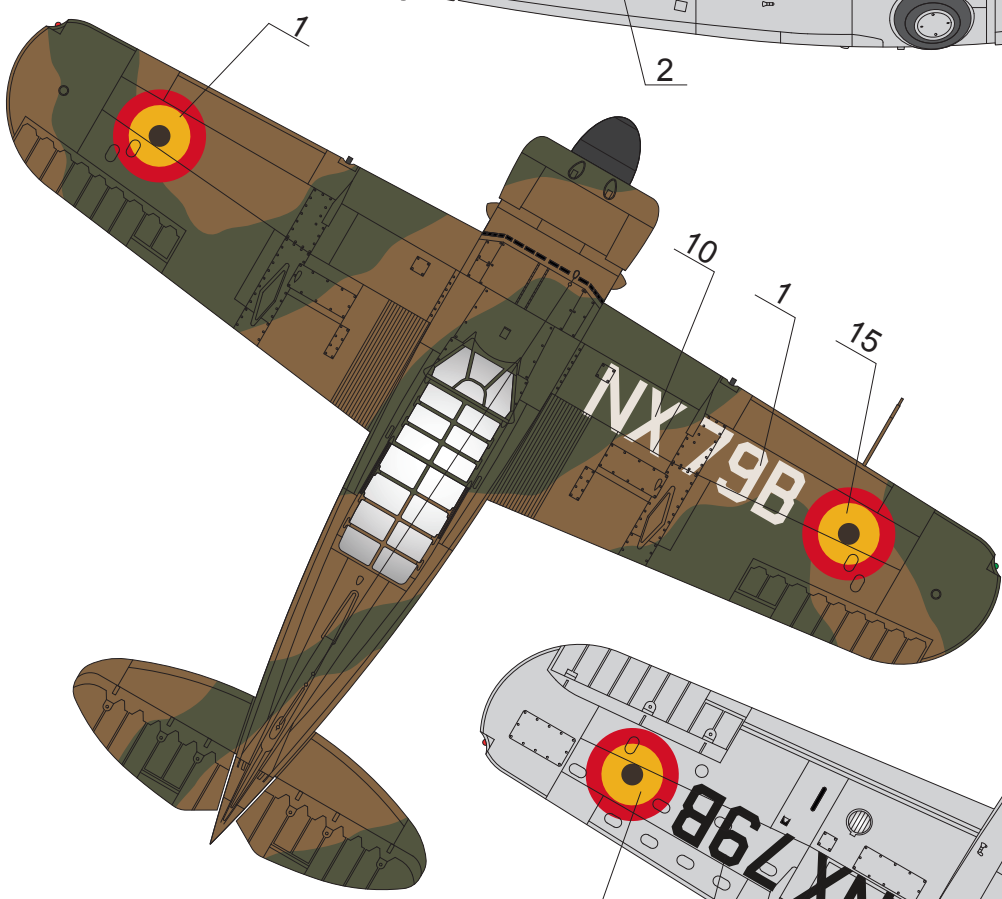

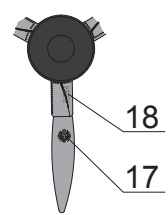

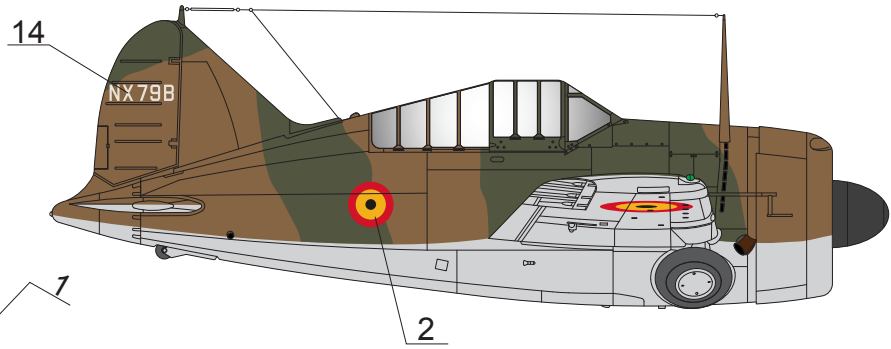

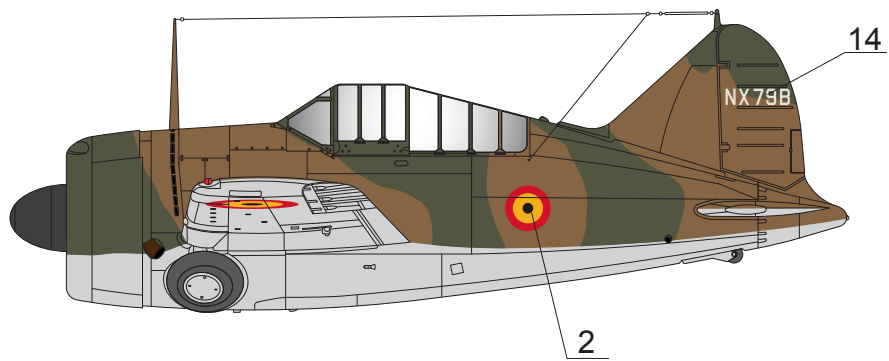

with temporary civilian registration NX56B tests over the US north-east coast, April 1940

Dark Earth
Dark Green
Aluminium

Brewster 339B Buffalo, NX90B
loaded aboard the French carrier Béarn, June 1940 abandoned at Martinique, 1940 - 1942.

For clarity, approximate / illustrative colors are used in the instructions

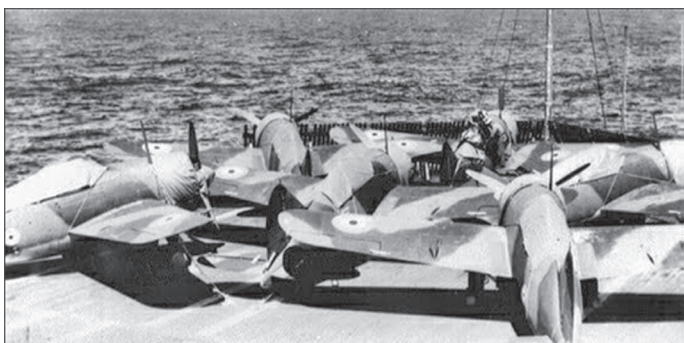

Dark Earth
Dark Green
Aluminium

Brewster 339B Buffalo, NX79B
 Roosevelt Field, Long Island (US), transferred to RAF, summer 1940

For clarity, approximate / illustrative colors are used in the instructions

First Belgian Buffalo during test flight (up and right)

Belgian and French planes abandoned at Martinique

NX79B and others Belgian Buffaloes, Roosevelt Field, Long Island